

Intensive Care Window (ICW) application is a software framework that enables the retrieval and integration of data from inpatient-attached medical sensors found in modern Intensive Care Units.

ICW follows a modular design to retrieve data from different patient monitoring devices. The tool includes full-fledged interaction protocols and graphical user-interface to interact with intelligent medical devices (such as Phillips IntelliVue MP70 or Ventilator840).