

The Linc Lab participated in the Science Workshop for High School and Technical School, presenting the research departments dealt with the laboratory. The presentation took place at the University of Cyprus Saturday, March 9, 2013. It was attended by 108 students and 5 teachers escorts. The students came from high schools (Public and Private) Schools and from almost all districts of Cyprus.

