

Group Executive of the National Guard visited the Laboratory For Internet Computing on Monday, 13 May 2013. As part of the visit were presented research activities of the laboratory. Some of the projects that have been presented is VSense and EGI.

